

Ricarda Demarmels

CFO Emmi Group

The Swiss born Ricarda Demarmels (1979) has been Chief Financial Officer (CFO) of the Emmi Group and a member of Group Management since June 2019. Before joining the leading manufacturer of high-quality dairy products in Switzerland, she was CFO of Orior, which is also a stock listed company, and held various management and consulting positions at investment and strategy consulting companies.

Starting 1 January 2023, Ricarda Demarmels will assume the position of CEO at Emmi Group.

Professional background at a glance

2015 - 2018	ORIOR Gruppe, Chief Financial Officer
2009 - 2014	Capvis Equity Partners Switzerland, Investment Director
2005 - 2009	Oliver Wyman Financial Services, Project Manager
2002 - 2003	Swiss National Bank, Research Assistant

Other mandates

since 2018	Sensirion, Member of the Board of Directors, Chairwoman of the Audit Committee and Member of the Independent Directors' Committee
-------------------	---

Education

1999 - 2005	University of St. Gallen (HSG), St. Gallen, Switzerland Master Degree in Finance & Accounting –lic. oec. HSG
--------------------	---

About Emmi

Emmi is the leading manufacturer of high-quality dairy products in Switzerland, with an established own presence in 15 markets. Emmi distributes its quality products in around 60 markets and produces high-quality food in 9 countries at over 30 own production sites. With more than 9,000 employees, around 70% of whom work outside Switzerland, the Emmi Group (EMMN) generated sales of CHF 3.9 billion in 2021.