DKSH Cambodia Promotes Equity in Women's Health Through Free Breast Cancer Screenings on "Patient Purpose Day 2025"

DKSH Cambodia partnered with Sihanouk Hospital Center of Hope to provide 150 free breast cancer screenings for women from low-income communities, reinforcing its commitment to advancing equity in women's health through the "Patient Purpose Day" initiative.

Phnom Penh, Cambodia, October 3, 2025 – DKSH Business Unit Healthcare, a leading partner for healthcare in Asia and beyond, collaborated with Sihanouk Hospital Center of Hope in Cambodia as part of its annual "Patient Purpose Day". Celebrated across 12 markets in Asia Pacific and Switzerland, this third "Patient Purpose Day" underscores DKSH Healthcare's commitment to improving patient outcomes. This year, the program focuses on advancing equity in women's health through community engagement and partnerships.

In Cambodia, DKSH partnered with Sihanouk Hospital Center of Hope to provide 150 free breast cancer check-ups for women from low-income communities. Early detection is critical in improving survival rates and reducing the burden of breast cancer, which remains one of the most common health challenges affecting women in the country.

"We are truly inspired by DKSH's dedication to corporate social responsibility and its belief in making a meaningful difference in people's lives. Together, we are not just investing in healthcare; we are investing in hope and well-being for many families," said Dr. Kimcheng Choun, a representative from the Sihanouk Hospital Center of Hope.

"'Patient Purpose Day' is our collective commitment to making healthcare more equitable and accessible. This year, by focusing on women's health, we are supporting patients where the need is big. Together with our partners, we are proud to enrich lives and help create healthier futures for Cambodian women," said Jane-jira Polsen, Senior General Manager, Healthcare, DKSH Cambodia.

"Patient Purpose Day" is part of DKSH Healthcare's annual global effort, spanning 12 markets, to address pressing healthcare needs through practical solutions and community partnerships. Driven by the dedication of colleagues across the markets the program demonstrates DKSH's purpose and mission to enrich people's lives by providing better healthcare for all.

About "Patient Purpose Day"

"Patient Purpose Day" is a global initiative by DKSH to showcase the Group's as well as the Business Unit Healthcare's continued efforts to bridge the inequality gap, improve patient outcomes, and enrich people's lives. The various events across different markets reinforce DKSH's commitment to enhancing patient outcomes and fostering a more meaningful impact on the healthcare landscape. The initiative is held annually in September.
