

DKSH and Partners Unite to Aid Flood-Affected Communities in Northern Thailand

DKSH employees donated essential products via the Friends in Need (of "PA") Volunteers Foundation, Thai Red Cross to support flood-affected communities.

In response to the recent flooding in Northern Thailand, DKSH Thailand together with its valued business partners provided support to communities in need through the donation of essential consumer and healthcare products. This united effort underlines DKSH's commitment to create a positive local impact in the communities it serves.

Bangkok, Thailand, August 13, 2025 – DKSH Thailand, a leader in market expansion services, has donated essential consumer and healthcare products together with its business partners to flood-affected communities in Northern Thailand. Many Northern provinces were faced with widespread flooding after heavy rainfall. To support the local communities in the affected areas, DKSH and its business partners have come together to provide vital donations.

Essential consumer goods from trusted brands like OSK and Nabati, along with healthcare products such as Nizoral Daily Shampoo, Tiger Balm, and Favorex, were contributed, with a total value of nearly THB 500,000. These donations were distributed through the Friends in Need (of "PA") Volunteers Foundation, Thai Red Cross, at the 11th Infantry Regiment, Royal Guard and direct relief channels to reach the affected and vulnerable people.

This initiative is part of DKSH's ongoing commitment to sustainability and social responsibility. Creating a positive local impact is a key pillar of DKSH's sustainability strategy, and supporting communities during times of crisis is a meaningful way to fulfill this mission.
