DKSH Partners with ACG to Reintroduce High-Quality Pharmaceutical Packaging Solutions in China

DKSH has entered into a distribution agreement with ACG Packaging Materials (trading as ACG Pharmapack Pvt. Ltd.) to market and distribute its comprehensive portfolio of pharmaceutical packaging materials in mainland China. The partnership marks ACG's strategic re-entry into the market and strengthens DKSH's pharmaceutical portfolio with high-quality, innovative packaging solutions.

Shanghai, China, August 29, 2025 – DKSH has partnered with ACG Packaging Materials (trading as ACG Pharmapack Pvt. Ltd.), a leading global provider of pharmaceutical packaging solutions headquartered in Mumbai, India. Through this agreement, DKSH will provide marketing, sales, distribution, and logistics services for ACG's full packaging material portfolio across mainland China.

ACG Packaging Materials (trading as ACG Pharmapack Pvt. Ltd.), part of the ACG Group, specializes in high-quality packaging materials that help pharmaceutical manufacturers maintain product integrity, safety, and regulatory compliance. Leveraging DKSH's extensive network and local expertise, ACG aims to expand its presence in China's growing pharmaceutical industry.

Jochen Scheil, Vice President Global Sales & Business Development, ACG commented: "China remains a strategic growth market for us, and we are confident that DKSH, with its professionalism, deep market knowledge, and strong local reputation, will be the right partner to help us scale our business and strengthen customer relationships."

Carole Lin, General Manager, Performance Materials, DKSH Greater China, commented: "We are delighted to partner with ACG, a trusted name in pharmaceutical packaging. This partnership reinforces our commitment to bringing high-quality, innovative solutions to our customers in China and further strengthens our position in the pharmaceutical industry segment."

The agreement aligns with DKSH's purpose of enriching people's lives and advancing the health and well-being of communities through reliable and sustainable market expansion services.
