DKSH Taiwan Wins “HR Asia Best Companies to Work for in Asia Taiwan 2025” for Two Consecutive Years

DKSH Taiwan has received the “HR Asia Best Companies to Work for in Asia Taiwan Award 2025” for the second year in a row. This recognition reflects its people-first culture and commitment to remain an employer of choice by supporting people, well-being, and employee engagement.

Taipei, Taiwan, August 9, 2025 — DKSH Taiwan, a leading Market Expansion Services provider in Asia and beyond, has been awarded the “HR Asia Best Companies to Work for in Asia Taiwan 2025” for the second consecutive year, underscoring its dedication to enhancing its employee experience and fostering a workplace where people can thrive.

Recognized with one of Asia’s most respected HR honors, the HR Asia Awards handpick world-class corporations with strong employee engagement and excellent workplace cultures. DKSH Taiwan earned this distinction once again, strengthening its role in fostering an inclusive and empowering work environment.

Aligned with its sustainability strategy of “Flourishing People”, DKSH Taiwan cultivates a workplace that promotes balance and well-being. Wellness resources and a transparent feedback system ensure employees feel heard and supported. Ongoing learning and individual development plans help people advance and build meaningful careers.

Wennie Chang, Head of Taiwan Leadership, DKSH Taiwan, received the award on stage and remarked: “At DKSH, enriching lives starts with our own people. Earning this honor for two consecutive years highlights our leadership team’s dedication to shaping a workplace where everyone feels valued, empowered, and has every opportunity to grow.”

Jacqueline Chien, Director of Human Resources, DKSH Taiwan, added: “This achievement reflects our focus on growing talent by providing meaningful opportunities to develop and excel. It motivates us to continue strengthening talent programs and ensuring everyone feels supported to succeed.”
