dormakaba expands its movable-wall business through the acquisition of UK-based Style Group

Rümlang, 6 July 2026 – dormakaba has acquired the United Kingdom's leading distributor of movable-wall solutions, Style Group. Through the purchase, dormakaba expands its business by strengthening its presence in one of Europe's largest movable-wall markets.

Style, which has served customers for more than 25 years, will be integrated into dormakaba's Global Movable Walls business, while maintaining its brand and independent setup. This will provide continuity and stability for clients, partners and Style's 100 employees. The purchase of Style – which operates through four regional branches – strengthens a trusted partnership, as the company already is a distributor of dormakaba products.

"The transaction builds on the long-standing relationship with Style, which has been the exclusive distributor of Skyfold and Dorma Hüppe products in the UK," said Christian Baur, CTO and President Key & Wall Solutions and OEM. "It will allow us to work with Style's extensive network of clients and architects and further grow our movable-wall business."

The transaction enables dormakaba to expand its presence in the UK by gaining direct access to Style's well-established customer base and network, including leading architectural firms. Through this network, dormakaba's solutions are deployed across a wide range of projects and industries, from universities and airports to major sports venues. Customers benefit from flexible space concepts that can be easily adapted to changing needs, supported by dormakaba's product portfolio.

"We are delighted that Style is joining the group," said Till Reuter, CEO of dormakaba. "The acquisition supports dormakaba's growth strategy in the UK by combining complementary assets in sales, services and customer access."

dormakaba expects the transaction to be accretive to Group EPS from day one. The parties have agreed not to disclose further details nor the financial terms of the transaction. dormakaba closed the acquisition of Style Group on 5 July 2026.
