dormakaba film portrait wins awards in Vienna and New York

Rümlang, 22 May 2026 — dormakaba is among this year's award winners at the International Business Film Days in Vienna and the New York Festivals TV & Film Awards. The film about architect Sara Klomps was awarded Silver in Vienna in the "Trade Show, Event, and Visitor Films, Conference Openers" category and received two finalist nominations in New York in the "Brand Image" and "Branded Content" categories.

This emotional film portrait tells the story of internationally renowned architect Sara Klomps at Zaha Hadid Architects. The focus is on her work on the realization of The Henderson, an architectural masterpiece in the heart of Hong Kong. The film shows how dormakaba's access solutions support the architect in bringing her vision to life — a building that invites the public to visit and offers seamless, touchless access.

The film, which was also shown at the 2025 Annual General Meeting, is part of dormakaba's storytelling approach implemented across various formats and channels. The authentic film portrait illustrates how dormakaba is a reliable global partner for safe and sustainable places where people can move seamlessly.

"Together with Sara Klomps, we are delighted that our film portrait has received recognition," says Patrick Lehn, dormakaba's corporate spokesperson, who led the film project. "The awards confirm the quality and impact of our strategic communication approach. The award-winning film exemplifies how dormakaba successfully fulfills its corporate purpose by providing secure access for people worldwide to places that matter to them."
