Contract renewed with Swiss Post for landline and mobile services

Sunrise has renewed its existing contract with Swiss Post for landline and mobile services.

Sunrise Business has renewed its existing contract with Swiss Post and so will continue to provide landline and mobile solutions for all Swiss Post group companies and subsidiaries that use them to deliver their own services.

«We're proud to be able to continue helping Swiss Post to deliver its service to the community using our solutions and comprehensive service in both the landline and mobile segments, and we're delighted to be taking our partnership forward,» says Robert Redeleanu, Chief Business Officer of Sunrise.

This contract renewal follows on seamlessly from the last nine years of cooperation. Over this period, Sunrise Business has succeeded in impressing Swiss Post with the quality and reliability of its Sunrise Business solutions thanks to its customer focus, high degree of dedication and flexibility, paving the way for the successful partnership's future.
